SOUTH ROYALTON

Woman Hurt by a Runaway Horse Has Sued Owner of The Horse.

Fay, which had become unmanageable, and in consequence of which she received a fracture of the collar bone, has sued the said Frank K. Fay for $1,000 damages. The case will be tried at the June term of the Windsor county court.

Harry F. Bryant announces that he has secured the contract to drive the "stage" from here to Chelsea for the next four years, beginning July first next.

The sixteen cent supper of the cheerful Teller Bible church, held the evening of the 15th, was a very successful affair, netting about $20.

An illustration of the "heft" of the snow which has recently fallen a person gathered up a full pail and melted it and there was more than two thirds of a pail of water remaining.

The operation of inserting drainage tube in the lung has been performed upon the little five-year-old son of Robert Fielders who has been very seriously sick for the past few weeks with pneumonia.

H. P. Weeks, a former real estate agent, made a short visit to town recently and incidentally passed with us his 75th birthday. He has never resided in Lynde, N. H., with his daughter, and occasionally sells a farm.

Principal Earle E. Wilson, and P. S. Belknap recently visited the graded school at Bethel, and after being very courteously shown about the school building by the principal, James C. Walker, were also entertained at his home, at dinner, which was much appreciated by the visitors.

There are two young men in town who were recently sent here by the immigration inspector of New York City, acting under the U. S. department of commerce and labor. One of them is working for C. W. Seymour, and the other is acting as clerk at the hotel, which speaks well for a class of laborers obliged to ask the government for assistance in securing employment.

The cadet band is now practicing preparatory to giving their annual band fair. This is something in which all citizens take especial pride because of the excellent music which has been rendered by them at their free concerts upon the park during the summer months. A new feature this year at the concert will be a good minstrel show which will be given by the young men of the village, and is looked forward to as being the event of the season.

The special feature of the coming town meeting is to see if the town will guarantee the price of the publication of the new town history recently written by Mrs. E. M. Loring, to the extent of $1,500. It is earnestly hoped that this will be done as at most it is only considered as a loan to cover the cost of publication until the sale of the books will meet the whole amount solicited.

The topic for the Y. M. C. A. meeting held in the S. of V. hall Wednesday evening was "Home Life." One of the life problem series, a C. E. Ford, county secretary, led the meeting which was very interesting. Several volunteered with appropriate and original remarks. About 35 members were present. After the close of the meeting adjournment was taken to the hall, and an enjoyable game of basket ball was indulged in for the remainder of the evening, Mr. Hurd acting as referee.

The centennial anniversary of the birth of Abraham Lincoln, held at the Congregational church, February 12, under the auspices of the Grand Army and kindred organizations, was a grand success. Following the organ prelude by Miss Lizzie Adams, and invocation by Rev. Sherman Goodwin there was a song, "Tenting Tonight" rendered by the following male voices: J. E. and J. C. Waterman, Charles Folsom, Harold Fish, Walter Spaulding and Elmer Harwood, which was very well done. Arthur G. Whitman very appropriately introduced Rev. H. M. Springer, the Methodist pastor, who took for his subject "The boyhood of Lincoln." His remarks were interesting and instructive, followed by an original poem entitled "Our beloved Lincoln" by Mrs. Nettie Waldo. The pastor, Rev. Sherman Goodwin, delivered an eloquent and witty discourse on the "Life and character of Lincoln, and M. J. Sargent very fittingly read "Lincoln's Gettysburg address." Miss Minnie Metcalf recited the poem by Miss Waller, entitled "The Parson on Lincoln" and following the song "America" by the male choir the exercises were closed with the benediction by the pastor.

DOOR LATCH FOR THE HOME.

A Simple Design Which Can Be Economically Constructed.

A homemade door latch may be constructed of three pieces of oak or other good hard wood. For the handle use a piece of 8 by 2 by 1 inches. Shape a flatish knob on one end and three inches long. Work down the rest so as to pass through a one inch square hole. Shape a knob on the other end by flattening the sides. The latch is made of a piece 5 by 1 by three-eighths inches. The catch is 8 by 2 by three-eighths inches.

Bore a one inch hole for the handle three inches from the edge of the door. Push the handle through the hole and mark on it the thickness of the door. Then bore in the handle a three-eighths inch hole for the latch. Then assemble the parts according to the finished figure, which shows the latch in place.

A little peg may be used to keep the latch from falling down when the door is open.

The design is very simple, and, besides being serviceable, such a latch can be made very economically.

"CY" YOUNG SOLD TO CLEVELAND

Famous Pitcher of The Boston American League Club.

Boston, Feb. 18.—Denton T. Young, known to baseball lovers the world over as "Cy" and the grand old man of baseball, has been sold to the Cleveland club by President John I. Taylor of the Boston team. In addition to a large cash consideration, Boston gets Pitchers Charles Cheech and John Ryan. Young, therefore, returns to the city in which he started his major league career in 1890.

Boston supporters of baseball are not likely to enthusiasm over the latest trade of the Boston Americans. There was a big protest when Young's great partner, Lon Griggs, was traded to St. Louis and it is likely that the outcry against the deal will resemble something like a howl of indignant protest. Since his first appearance in a Boston uniform Young has been the idol of baseball lovers from the urchin at the knot hole in the fence to the man of wealth in a reserved seat. He filled a big place in baseball history in Boston and his absence from the Huntington-avenue grounds will be keenly felt. The trade takes away from the local club the last of the old champion
